SEOUL, Korea, Nov. 14 (AP)—The U.N. command accused communist North Korea today of a double-cross ambush of eight unarmed U.S. and South Korean soldiers in the demilitarized zone. One American was wounded and a South Korean captain is presumed dead. The U.N. command said the communists trapped the U.S. unit and fired about 1,000 rounds in about four hours Wednesday afternoon. Seven men escaped after darkness fell, North Korea said.

Ships Collide, Five Men Are Injured

BUZZARDS BAY, Mass., Nov. 14 (AP)—The 6,732-ton freighter Fernview, out of Oslo, Norway, and the coastal tanker Dynafuel collided early today 10 miles from the southern entrance to Cape Cod canal. Five men on the tanker were injured as she was swept by fire for four hours.

The 3,100-ton tanker, less than half the size of the freighter, was sliced in her port side and both vessels locked together. Capt. K. A. Olson, skipper of Fernview, said he was heading toward the canal about 7 a.m. in an early morning haze when "all of a sudden she popped up under our bow."

Coast guard cutters reached the scene within a short time and battled the flames which broke out in Dynafuel's engine room. The fire raged out of control until nearly 11 a.m. when the firefighting crews subdued the flames with foam.

The crews of both vessels were evacuated to the smaller cutters. There were 40 men aboard the freighter and 20 on the tanker.

County Farm Bureau Holds Annual Meet

Committee reports highlighted the Thursday morning session of the Twin Falls county Farm Bureau's annual meeting at the bureau's office in Twin Falls. Resolutions and election of officers will highlight the afternoon session. Charles Harris, chairman, said 33 proposed resolutions will be discussed to give directions to delegates who will attend the state convention held Sunday through Wednesday at Pocatello.

Government Moral Level Is Compared

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—President Kennedy said today moral standards of the federal government "compare favorably" with those of U.S. labor and business.

Asked at this news conference about the mushrooming case of Senate Democratic Secretary Robert (Bobby) Baker, who had extensive outside contacts, Kennedy said, "In government, in the newspaper business, and in labor and so on—there are always going to be people who can't stand the pressure of opportunity."

"The important point is what action is taken against them," he said.

Strings Attached To Space Budget

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—The Senate appropriations committee has approved $19 billion dollars for the nation's space program with a proviso none of the money is used for joint U.S.-Russia moon venture without congressional approval.

Shoshone to Hear Concert On Memorial Carillon Bells

SHOSHONE, Nov. 14—The inaugural concert of the Edith Gooding Memorial carillon will be held here at 3 p.m. Sunday at Christ Church Episcopal.

SETTING IN ON a sixth grade class at Washington school is Garner Lewis, 292 Elm street north. Lewis attended class Wednesday, during National Education week, to look over the school and note the progress of his daughter, Linda Lewis, front desk.

Tight Fit, but T. F. Parents Attend Class

Citizens were urged Thursday to acquaint themselves with the "new look" in the Twin Falls school program as they observe American Education week through Saturday.

Ernest Ragland, superintendent of schools, pointed out that one of the most important of the new features of the school system here is the Robert Stuart Junior high school, which officially opened its doors to students in September.

The school system also has a new administrative office, located in the old postoffice building, 205 Main avenue west.

Ragland stated that during this week many parents of school children attend schools and classes to look over the school program.

He said hundreds of persons go through the schools during education week.

Ragland also stated that the 1963-64 school year has had the largest enrollment of students in a long time. He reported the greatest enrollment increase is in the high school, which has about 1,400 persons.

The Twin Falls high school PTSA met Wednesday evening at the high school. They toured the school and attended classes of their children.

Ragland pointed out that every school will host an open house during the school year, but during education week all the schools are open for public inspection.

"In conjunction with the education week program, Ragland said that there are adult education classes, which most people forget about."

The classes, sponsored by Idaho State university, are held at O'Leary junior high school. It was reported all eight counties in Magic Valley are represented at these classes.

Arthur Kleinkopf, assistant superintendent of schools, pointed out that there are 262 fees in the adult classes and about 245 enrollments. There are 13 different adult classes, he said.

Gem Trustees Hold Convention

POCATELLO, Nov. 14 (AP)—More than 250 men and women who set policy for the public schools of Idaho met in session here today at the opening day of the state convention of the Idaho School Trustees' association.

Smylie Doubts Value Of Special Session

BOISE, Nov. 14 (UPI)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie said today he doubted whether even a special session of the legislature would be able to resolve the problem of congressional redistricting in Idaho. There has been talk of a possible federal court suit to settle the problem, possibly by having Idaho's two congressmen run at large rather than from separate districts. Smylie has asked the past two legislatures to do something about the imbalance between the first and second districts but neither could agree on a solution. At present there are almost twice as many persons in the second district as in the first.

Channel Will Be Cleared At Gooding

GOODING, Nov. 14—A contract for $11,975 has been awarded to a Shelley firm to clear the channel of the Little Wood river, near Gooding, Ben. Len B. Jordan, R. Ida., informed the Times-News today.

The senator's office said he was notified by Colonel Beddow, district engineer of the Walla Walla district, army corps of engineers, that the contract had been awarded to George E. Grover and sons, Shelley.

The work will include clearing the channel of the Little Wood river which has overflowed its banks, causing flood damage in past years.

Udall Plan Rapped by Californians

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 14 (AP)—Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall's plan to develop Pacific Southwest water has been bitterly scorned by the assembly water committee as offering California "no net advantage."

And further, the 19-member committee said in a special report yesterday, it could result in southern California paying a subsidy to finance Arizona's water projects.

The committee said it was "unable to support" the federal proposal and suggested that Gov. Edmund G. Brown make no commitment without consent from the legislature.

The group last month heard witnesses from the federal and state governments on Udall's proposal. Udall asked for comments from the five Pacific southwest states on the plan.

Udall offered the regional plan after the U.S. supreme court ruled mostly in favor of Arizona in a dispute over California and Arizona water rights along the Colorado river. Southern California stands to lose more than 1.2 million acre-feet of water a year from the decision.

The committee said the Udall plan should incorporate the "basic policies" of California's own water program but added this was "not likely to occur."

It recommended, as a result, that state water facilities and features of the Pacific southwest be kept "relatively separate" if the Udall plan were put into effect.

Air Crash Suits Are Consolidated

ATLANTA, Nov. 14 (AP)—Suits of 33 survivors of victims of an Air France crash in June, 1962, have been consolidated on orders of U.S. Dist. Judge Lewis R. Morgan and Frank A. Hopper.

The combined suits, which seek more than 18 million dollars in damages, resulted in a crash near Paris. The jet was chartered by the Atlanta Art association for a tour of European art centers.

Appalled

TOKYO, Nov. 14 (AP)—Japanese railway officials, still under fire from a triple train wreck last week-end that killed 182 persons, were appalled today at the discovery of obstructions on Japan's busiest rail line.

Officials said 35 melon-size stones and two steel drums were placed on rails of the main trunk line in Numazu City, 120 miles west of Tokyo.

A freight train motor-man saw the objects ahead of his speeding train and stopped in time.

Senate Takes Another Bite From Aid Bill

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—The already heavily cut foreign aid authorization bill has been sliced again. This time it's a 20 million dollar nick.

By a 51-41 count Wednesday the senate voted to cut supporting assistance for defense pact allies from 400 million dollars to 380 million dollars. This brought cuts on the senate floor to 480 million dollars.

Another $327,250,000 was chipped off by the foreign relations committee before the measure reached the floor nearly three weeks ago.

At $3,722,365,000, the aid ceiling for the current fiscal year is now $807,250,000 below President Kennedy's original request.

Flu Shots Have Done Little Good

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 14 (AP)—Flu shots widely used in the past few years apparently have done little good, several doctors told the American Public Health association Wednesday.

Dr. Alexander Langmuir of the communicable disease center in Atlanta said a better vaccine is needed before general use could be justified in cost to the public.

He and other experts said the virus causing flu is unpredictable and easily altered. In effect, it stays slightly ahead of the vaccine makers. The least change in the virus means the vaccine won't work well.

Surgeon General Luther L. Terry added: the public health service still recommends the shots for older people and those with chronic illness. These, he said, are the ones hardest hit by outbreaks such as the one last year which was responsible for 50,000 more deaths than originally predicted.

Legal Test of Idaho's Law On Bible Reading Is Planned

MOSCOW, Nov. 14 (AP)—Plans for a legal test of Idaho's Bible-reading law were announced Wednesday and Atty. Gen. Alan G. Shepard said it is "probably the most desirable way of clearing the air."

The announcement confirmed a story carried by The Associated Press from Boise more than two weeks ago saying such a lawsuit was probable.

Shepard said in Boise he had been "awake" that a test-suit "has been under discussion" and likely would be filed in Moscow.

"I think this is probably the most desirable way of clearing the air on this matter," Shepard said.

President Lambasts Aid Critics

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (UPI)—President Kennedy, in a rare attack on congress, today lambasted critics of his foreign aid program and reluctantly conceded that his civil rights and tax cut bills probably will not be passed this year. In some of the strongest language he has ever used against the Democratic-controlled congress, the President told a news conference that those lawmakers seeking to cut the aid program were "severely limiting" his ability to protect the national interest.

Water Meet

IDAHO FALLS, Nov. 14 (Special)—The committee of time will meet at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Bonneville hotel. The main item of business will concern the proposed diversion of Snake river water to California.

U. S. to Cut Squadrons In Europe

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—The United States will make a 40 per cent cut by next July in the number of tactical air transport squadrons based in Europe, the defense department announced today.

The Pentagon said the change, which will bring three squadrons back to the United States, stems from the progressive buildup of U.S. airlift capability, which has just about doubled since 1960.

The action was taken after North Atlantic Treaty organization authorities were informed, the Pentagon said.

Instead of five squadrons totaling 76 turboprop C130 transports, and prop-driven C-124 planes in Western Europe, the air force will have three squadrons totaling 34 planes. Byreux, France, and Rhein-Main air base, Germany.

Jordan Urges Dam Building For Idaho

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (Special)—"The best way to thwart any proposals for use of the water of Idaho streams outside the borders of Idaho is to move rapidly ahead to complete plans for such projects as Fremont dam, Snake river plains recharge and the Guffey project," Senator Len Jordan, R. Ida., declared today.

Declarations and statements, written or oral, protesting the plans of out-of-state interests to get our water will not replace action on developing water resource projects for consumptive use of our water in Idaho, he explained. We must not let controversy or short-sighted non-consumptive uses of our water block full water resource development for agricultural, industrial and domestic needs, he added.

Reiterating a pledge he made while governor of Idaho in the early 1950's, Jordan said he would not rest until every drop of the Snake river water needed for economic use in Idaho has been developed. At that time the Idaho senator sought adequate clarification and safeguards for state water rights and urged adoption of the Columbia river compact to guarantee Idaho priority use of water which flowed across the state.

Recalling this earlier battle to keep Idaho water for Idaho, Jordan remembered that his continued appeals and persistence at that time brought on the "sponges for Jordan" campaign. The campaign by his opponents sought to ridicule his aim by saying he sought to "dry up the Snake."

"It is interesting to note that many of those who fought my actions at that time are now deeply concerned that the waters of the Snake might be channeled to other areas," Jordan said. "And they might well be," he noted, "as we have seen how with power transmission lines they can carry water power vast distances, so, too, can they carry our water itself vast distances through canals and aqueducts."

"Unless we plan for our needs as an entire state in a sound manner that will benefit not only Idaho but the entire nation by using our water in Idaho, we can expect someday to see our water used elsewhere," he concluded.

Military Fund Cut

Meany Calls Automation Real Curse

NEW YORK, Nov. 14 (AP)—AFL-CIO President George Meany told the giant labor federation's annual convention today that automation "is rapidly becoming a real curse that could bring us to national catastrophe."

The veteran labor leader's vigorous opening speech gave voice to the 1,200-delegate convention's prevailing concern—a chronic unemployment made worse by the increasing displacement of workers through automation.

"There is no element of blessing in automation," Meany told an audience, including excitedly noted observers from the undeveloped countries of Asia and Africa.

"We cannot be blind to the fact that this country and this nation can go down the drain with this one great problem," Meany said.

Meany said the AFL-CIO had a "positive" program to reverse the trend toward economic catastrophe "to which we are vulnerable." Its main feature is a 35-hour work week "now."

'Secession' Leaders Say They Are Serious

By The Associated Press
State officials see a proposal that 10 northern Idaho counties secede from the state as an "ancient chestnut" and an "attempts at some kind of humor."

Backers of the move contend, however, that basic economic differences between north and south Idaho are involved.

Phillip Jungert, Lewiston, says his group also fears that north Idaho will lose its voting strength to Ada county in the event of congressional redistricting.

Jungert is the brother of Marion G. Jungert, one of the incorporators of North Idaho, Inc., a non-profit organization which advocates secession. There were four other incorporators.

Articles for the corporation were filed in Boise Wednesday. They state the purpose of the organization is to investigate the feasibility and advisability of the 10 northern counties seceding from Idaho and forming a "sole and separate state."

Jungert, in a statement released Wednesday night, cited differences in the agricultural, timber and mining industries in the two sections of the state.

"We in the north are dependent on timber, agriculture and mining," he said. "Our agriculture is dryland farming. South Idaho is irrigated. North Idaho is heavily timbered while south Idaho has much desert. North Idaho's mining is metallic while south Idaho's is phosphate."

Jungert also pointed to the fact that the bulk of Idaho's population is centered in the southern part of the state.

"This situation puts north Idaho in a position of second in priority," he asserted. "We are not allowed to govern ourselves in the north and recent talk about reapportioning the first congressional district of Idaho to include Ada county is a hard blow to the north."

"It will place the voting majority in the first district in the hands of two counties—Ada and Canyon. We could lose our north Idaho congressional representation if Ada county moves to the first district."

In Boise, Gov. Robert E. Smylie recalled that similar efforts at secession by the counties had been made in the past.

The first and perhaps most serious occurred in 1877, 13 years before Idaho achieved statehood, he said.

At that time congress passed and sent to President Grover Cleveland a measure annexing the 10 northern counties to Montana and Washington. President Cleveland refused to sign the measure, however, and congress adjourned before further action could be taken.

A second serious attempt was made 50 years ago when the counties proposed to secede and join border counties in Montana, Washington and Oregon in forming the state of "Jefferson."

Secretary of State Arnold Williams said he does not believe the proposal has the backing of a majority of north Idahoans.

He said he felt the state would resist any attempt at secession. Counties listed in the proposal were Benewah, Bonner, Boundary, Clearwater, Idaho, Kootenai, Latah, Lewis, Nez Perce and Shoshone.

But his brother, retired Air Force Brig. Gen. Lacey V. Murrow, said yesterday it might not make any difference anyway. General Murrow said his brother, who is director of the U.S. information agency, "never inhaled a cigarette in his life."

Italians Fret, Have Plan to Fix Pisa Tower

MILAN, Italy, Nov. 14 (AP)—An Italian engineer suggested, here last night that the famed leaning tower of Pisa be jacked up while a solid foundation is slipped under it.

Prof. Gustavo Colonnetti said in a lecture here that the tower, which is leaning a bit more each year, may topple "within a few decades."

He proposed that the tilted tower be lifted a fraction of an inch off its present shaky base by giant hydraulic jacks. It would rest on a temporary base while a solid foundation was built under it.

Let It Spread

Citizens can be forgiven if they're confused about many of the things that originate in Washington, D.C., the never-never land of red tape, bureaucrats, politicians and big federal spenders. The continuing rebellion of some liberal members of congress against foreign aid is not only confusing, it's downright bewildering.

Sure, foreign aid has gotten entirely out of hand, but in that respect it's hardly different from any other federal program. Here's the trademark of virtually anything undertaken by the federal government. It's also the mark of bureaucracy.

Federal spending programs seldom, if ever, get smaller. For that reason alone, all taxpayers should stand up and cheer if the liberals succeed in the avowed aim of reducing foreign aid. As Idaho's Sen. Frank Church pointed out the other day, at the end of 1962 only eight nations in the world were not receiving some form of aid from the U.S.

Senator Church's role in endeavoring to reduce foreign aid isn't the least puzzling aspect of the situation. Senator Church keynoted the Democratic national convention which nominated Mr. Kennedy for the presidency. And he set the pace for the recent Democratic party lovefest in Salt Lake City, lambasting Sen. Barry Goldwater so thoroughly everyone assumed the Democrats have decided he's the Republican to beat next year.

Unless the Kennedy administration has asked the liberals to act—and that hardly seems likely—there's a question of how the liberals would be received at the White House these days. For instance, does Senator Church still have the same standing with his party as before he started sounding off about foreign aid?

If Senator Church and the other liberals succeed in achieving substantial reductions in foreign aid, they will merit the applause of taxpayers.

Those same taxpayers should be given even more of a break than a reduction in foreign aid. Regardless of claims to the contrary, there's scarcely a government agency, project or plan that couldn't be financed at a considerably lower figure. Perhaps it wouldn't be quite as popular to start chopping down federal expenditures at home, but members of congress might get fewer protests than they would imagine. The key, of course, would be the same open explanation of the proposed goal as in the drive to cut foreign aid.

Taxpayers generally might fool Washington by cheering rather than complaining if it was explained that federal expenditures have gotten out of hand just because they are federal expenditures. Furthermore, it could be explained that congress intends to live up to its responsibilities to keep expenses more in line with income, and planned to reduce expenditures all down the line.

Let the rebellion against foreign aid spread to every item in the federal budget! Instead of merely deploring high spending, members of congress should cut all spending. It's high time to end the shameful waste.

MISGUIDED FASTING

Four students at a Quaker-sponsored high school in Grass Valley, Calif., fasted to protest the observance of Veterans day. It was explained the fast was designed to protest "all forms of legalized murder" and "to demonstrate opposition to the honor which, on Veterans day, is bestowed on men who would kill." The fasting students apparently have the courage of their convictions, but little else could be said in their favor.

Veterans day is the time the nation honors its war dead; those citizens who gave their lives in defense of their nation or its ideals. Many were "selected" by their friends and neighbors, as the selective service notices put it. They were given no choice. It would be surprising if any regarded themselves as potential "legal murderers" nor would it be fair to label them as "men who would kill." In the combat which claimed their lives, it was a simple matter of survival—kill or be killed.

No one likes war and no one in his right mind could condone war. When an ordinary citizen finds himself in uniform with a rifle in his hands, should he be labeled as a legal murderer?

Instead of protesting an insufficient honor for those who died in war, the fasting students would do well to direct their protests at those world figures and leaders whose actions are designed to precipitate war.

WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—A Georgetown cocktail party recently had the misfortune to encounter a famous young man described as a "good family." He is a veteran of fashionable boarding schools and an aristocratic university—and he has learned nothing.

Specifically, he knows nothing about people. When the talk got around to medical aid for the aged, his comment was typically petulant. "I don't understand all the fuss about old people," he said. "Why don't they save up for their old age?"

OLD SAVE LITTLE—Unfortunately, this reaction is not incredible. It is quite sadly believable in a nation where the well-to-do often remain insulated against poverty's facts of life. It is one of the reasons why, in this fundamentally warm-hearted country, there is so much uninformed opposition to the Anderson-King bill to provide hospital insurance for the aged through the social security system. Hearings on the bill start Nov. 18 in the house ways and means committee, and although its supporters are predicting passage early next year, the bill has powerful opponents including the American Medical association.

To answer that dreadful young man, the fact is that millions of Americans just don't earn enough in their productive years to save for the illnesses of old age. Half the aged couples in the country have total incomes of less than $2,000 annually, and half of the old people living alone have incomes of less than $1,000 a year. Many aged couples have no savings at all—half of them have liquid assets of less than $1,000.

THE HOSPITAL YEARS—Yet, as age creeps up, the need for hospital care increases. One in six of the aged is hospitalized each year, nine of 10 older persons are hospitalized at least once after age 65. And about half of the aged have no hospital insurance.

Opponents of the Anderson-King bill are constantly yelling that new legislation is not needed, that the aged are cared for by hospital plans and by the Kerr-Mills medical assistance for the aged program (MAA). This is cruel flummery. Neither nonprofit nor commercial insurance programs have met the need, and the MAA has been a ridiculous flop.

Because of their low incomes and high medical expenses, few of the aged can afford the premiums charged by plans such as Blue Cross, which provide reasonable protection. Indeed, the burden of carrying the aged has been so heavy for Blue Cross that it has been forced to increase its premiums for younger, low-risk groups; of 200 million dollars received from policyholders over 65, Blue Cross has paid out over 375 million in benefits.

ONLY 7 OF 1,000 AIDED—The Kerr-Mills MAA plan authorizes federal matching funds to states for health care to those aged who can prove their financial need. But after three years, only half of the 50 states are operating MAA plans, and less than seven of every 1,000 aged in the nation are getting any assistance under the plan. Benefits are meager and spotty and administrative costs are high, running as much as 124 per cent of the benefits provided in Kentucky.

Aged with more than minimum incomes or savings are out of luck, and relief often is given only after all resources have been exhausted. In many states, the incomes of relatives are investigated and those with modest incomes are frequently taken to court and forced to give aid. It is all very well to talk about rugged individualism, but this is not what we are fond of describing as the American way of meeting such a problem. Americans have a record of taking care of their own—the needy and the underprivileged. In the matter of hospital aid for the aged, the American way is not the enforced giving of charity but the setting up of a program whereby Americans may put aside a portion of their earnings against the exigencies of old age. It is called social security.

Views of Others

OTHERS, TOO, CAN HELP

The Kennedy administration should seriously heed the advice of the senate foreign relations committee on the future of foreign aid. The committee, which has been the foreign-aid program's best friend through Truman, Eisenhower and Kennedy administrations, is like so many others, getting fed up with what, under Mr. Kennedy, appears to be a rapidly receding level of discrimination in equipping foreign aid with the enlightened self interest of the United States.

The committee this week released a stinging report, recommending, among other things, that there should be more "selectivity" among countries in distributing U.S. grants and loans and that such assistance should be terminated altogether with respect to "countries which can take care of themselves." It was further suggested that some responsibilities borne unilaterally by America for so long should be transferred gradually to cooperative agencies, such as the world bank.

It is timely to add that the United Nations and its auxiliary agencies are also fitted to assume, especially in the so-called "developing countries," many responsibilities heretofore financed wholly by the United States. The United Nations, which this week is marking its 18th anniversary, has demonstrated its capacity to assume a heavier measure of such responsibilities, especially those that pertain to the health and economic betterment of people.

The time has not yet come when the United Nations is capable of fulfilling its prime purpose—full insurance of world peace. But, at 18, it has a maturity and a record worthy of the world's confidence in an expansion of the collective effort, under the U.N. aegis, to solve the world's many problems that fall short of war.—The Oregonian.

A TRICK

Some time ago the American Economic Review said the Soviet Union's industrial production in 1960 stood at 76 per cent of America's total industrial production. Taint so, replied some Russian economists!

The Americans didn't take electric power production into account and America is much better at that than we are, said one Soviet economist. The U.S. allows much more than we do for amortization, said another Russian, so the American figures are far too low. To be truthful, said the dean of Russian economists, one Stanislay G. Stranin, the Soviet Union has gained only one per cent on the United States in the past three years.

These guys certainly have their nerve talking like that. Things are confused enough without the communist throwing up off our guard with the truth.—Charlotte Observer.

SANTA'S ZIP CODE

Things have come to a pretty pass when a fellow as well known as Santa Claus has to have a ZIP Code number so that boys who deliver the mail will know where to reach him.

He has, though—14-00701—and it was assigned to Santa Claus by rolling Postmaster General J. Edward Day, who used it to designate the North Pole station of the Fairbanks, Alaska, post office.

And yet, on second thought, it might have been a good idea, for a lot of people, especially grown-ups who think Santa Claus lives in Washington, D.C.—(ZIP Code 20500)—Cleveland Plain Dealer

THE CLEAN AMERICAN

The above average American man
Takes his family for a ride.
They don't throw trash around
To litter up the countryside.

They like to keep America
As beautiful as can be.
So others can enjoy it
And drive around to see.

This country belongs to us.
We help to keep it clean.
So be honest with yourself.
Take pride in your American scene.

Pretend that it belongs to you.
It's all your very, very own;
Let people know you're pretty proud
To call clean America your home.

TIMES CHANGE

Dear Pats:
I'd like to reminisce back to the days when it took four good horses to lug 18 tons of sugar beets two miles to the dump that was constructed with 20 per cent rise for the railroad cars and if there were no cars, the driver would hoist them to an eight-foot level by shovel. Both driver and horses would retire to nine hours of rest after a 15-hour day.

Now we have a revolution in beet harvesting that few can remember when it started. The stored piles are so high and broad that they look like plateaus.

The Missus and I enjoy watching this operation—and I clocked in at the factory three million loads on trucks in exactly four minutes flat and they moved the plant, dump and all in six minutes and 45 seconds.

We moved to another area and it took four minutes and 20 seconds to move three truckloads onto the pile and nine minutes, 40 seconds, to move the plant because of a minor repair replacement.

At this pace, I am sure the beets will be harvested, but is this delay in time caused by the sugar company in order to show up the growers and help at Cedar Draw?

Hibernatin' Harry (Curry)
P. S. Curry won the award with a time of three minutes and 50 seconds. Filler ran a close second.

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—All the wishful omens read into last week's election cannot disguise the fact that it was really more of the same.

We are seeing the politics of a dead center of doubt and uncertainty. What we have may not be good enough but what we are likely to get will possibly be worse. The present pause reflects the same narrow division which in 1960 Marquis Childs split the popular vote by a precarious hairline margin.

Most of the comment has been in the effect that the return show President Kennedy has a tough job ahead to be reelected. Far more obvious is the fact that any man who served in the office of the presidency after 1964, whether his name is Kennedy, Goldwater, Rockefeller or whatever, will find it difficult, if not impossible, to get even a minimum of agreement on what must be done in the nation and the world.

Above all, in the racial conflict the pressures for change—change profoundly disruptive of the separate way of life long taken for granted—are part of the shadow of doubt. The Kentucky election is perhaps the sharpest reflection of this fear. The Republican candidate, Louis B. Nunn, attacked the retiring governor, Bert Combs, for his order desegregating businesses serving the public, and his position was compared to that of Senator Goldwater. The Democratic candidate, Edward T. Breathitt, Jr., narrowly squeaked through in a state that normally goes to the Democrats in elections for state office.

Almost no one here in this stagnant capital speaks, except in a private whisper, about the fear of what can happen in the months just ahead. It is the fear that the immovable force, namely congress, will collide head-on with the irresistible force that is the fierce first wave of the Negro civil rights movement. On this collision course the results are entirely predictable.

Already an angry muttering can be heard often from sources where it would have been least expected.—The top command of the United Auto Workers union, which has led the way in integration and other "progressive" directions, is getting the word from the grass roots. Phrased in far more blunt and brutal language it is:

Don't push this Negro equality business any harder, it's gone far enough. The fear of what the coming months can bring has very real dimensions. If congress by late February or March has not passed a civil rights bill roughly the equivalent of the one reported out by the house judiciary committee, containing public accommodations and fair employment provisions, the prospect for widespread civil disobedience, however reluctant moderate leaders may be, they will be unable to stand off the young insurgents.

Airports, railway and bus stations will be put under siege. In an atmosphere of frenzy and near hysteria violence will generate more violence. This is not a nightmare invented to put pressure on a dragging and unhappy congress. It is the perilous shape of things to come as seen by those close to the advanced wars of Negro leadership and who would if they could foment it.

White voters could be alienated in large numbers throughout the North, and, as a result, all current calculations on the outcome for November of 1964 would be thrown off. A Republican candidate would hardly have to utter a word since the ins would be blamed, and the outs would be the beneficiaries.

In short, all bets would be off. It is hard to recall a time when 12 months before a presidential election, the elements that can determine the outcome should still be in uncertain suspension and in a sense beyond the power of even an incumbent president to influence.

That the Philadelphia election is a register of this uncertainty seems questionable. Above all Philadelphia is more of the same. The Democrats in control of city hall have fallen into the same posture of favors-in-return-for-favors that for so long plagued the Republican machine that owned the city. And the Republicans suffered from the chronic ailment that General Eisenhower so often bewailed—a lack of able candidates willing to start at the pick-and-shovel level and build an organization.

But candidates, parties and elections to one side, the pressing question is how long the nation can pause on the present narrow plateau of indecision with all hands reluctant to confront the rocky road ahead. The 1964 election can hardly be another wait and see. The waiting time is nearly at an end.

aside the script she had been reading. She walked to the window of her hotel livingroom and glanced out into the rain.

She recalled an incident of her youth, when she was an obscure model here, hoping that somehow, sometime, she would be able to land a job as a showgirl.

"I had the usual starving, freezing time here," she said. "I don't look upon that time as the good old days. I was making $25 to $50 a week. I was shy as a kid. I didn't have any dates. I never saw the inside of a night club.

"I didn't mind the fact that success came so gradually," she said, turning away from the window.

"I thought I was doing fine. I was happy. I had a wonderful apprenticeship. I would have worked for nothing."

To her chief sins in life are ingratitude, and self-pity.

"The thing that held me back for years was being too willing to see the other guy's side. I did—I did my own," she said. "That way you can wind up being a patsy."

"You have to follow your own convictions if you're going to be successful. You have to be strong enough to follow your own path."

BARRY GOLDWATER

One of the first things taught our elementary school youngsters when they get into American history is the U.S. constitution. Yet it is surprising how short a time this learning is retained.

Many adult Americans were straight "A" students in all subjects relating to U.S. history and government, but today they are as ignorant of the basic provisions of our founding document as are those who never heard of it.

An excellent example is the popular misconception that only the President is responsible for the nation's finances.

Although a President whose party also controls congress can get just about everything he asks for in the way of money, it is congress alone which has spending authority.

Clause 7 of article 1 of the Constitution states:

"No money shall be drawn from the treasury, but in consequence of appropriations made by law; and a regular statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public money shall be published from time to time."

The clause is further specific and has been interpreted in courts to be a limitation of executive power, considered necessary by the framers of the Constitution. Thus, a Democratic congress, in the administration of a Republican president, could vote to spend three times the amount called for in the budget request. And should the strength of the Democratic congress be sufficient, it could make the spending stick, even in the face of a presidential veto.

The converse, of course, is equally true. A Republican congress would have the same powers and could appropriate considerably less than called for by a Democratic president.

In such a case, a simple GOP majority in the house would be sufficient, for there would be nothing for the president to veto and no need for the two-thirds vote necessary to overcome such an executive action.

Historically, Democratic and Republican congresses have done just that—the Democrats voting for greater spending, the Republicans cutting back on unnecessary expenditures. Since the turn of the century, the result has been that the nation has compiled a national debt of approximately 311 billion dollars, and more than 98 per cent of it was rolled up by Democratic congresses.

Add to this the estimated 11 billion dollars more for which Democratic congresses have indebted the taxpayer in future spending, and the importance of which party controls the house becomes obvious. It means that the Democrats have burdened every man, woman and child in this nation with a total obligation of nearly $6,000, or each family of four with an inescapable debt of $24,000.

True, all of us hope revenues will erase that debt, but revenues come only from taxes, and taxes must come from the taxpayer. So large have our obligations become, in fact, that interest payments on our 311-billion-dollar debt alone amounts to approximately 10 billion dollars per year.

In all, Democratic congresses have accounted for more than three-fourths of our debt, and they were large enough to account for the 98-plus per cent of our debt mentioned above. Republicans, on the other hand, have cut back our debt 20 of the 26 times we have had surpluses since 1890.

The lessons in this are several and simple. They show that congress, not the president, appropriates money; Democratic congresses, particularly those which serve under Democratic administrations, historically have spent more than the government takes in; Republican congresses have cut, instead of increased, the debt; and the solution to the nation's financial problems rests in the election of Republicans to congress and the presidency.

How do you stand, air?

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

If someone handed you an inhaler and told you it was full of poisonous chemicals I trust you would not sniff it. We are, however, all exposed to many poisons in the air. Why?

Under favorable conditions air currents dilute and disperse most of the polluting substances. But the fact remains that we are simply not aware of how our environment is doing until we develop one of the chronic respiratory diseases.

Some air pollutants are capable of causing lung cancer. It has been found that prolonged exposure to them is associated not only with a high incidence of lung cancer but also of stomach cancer.

Such exposure is responsible also for an increase in bronchial asthma and infections of the nose, throat and sinuses. Smog can make you cry, sneeze and cough and, in those who are already in a weakened condition or are suffering from a chronic respiratory disease, it can kill.

It can temporarily paralyze the cilia in the lungs, and thus interfere with the natural cleaning of that organ. Furthermore, asthma can definitely be aggravated by community-wide burning of leaves in the fall.

Studies show that persons who have the act of diamonds in addition to the king-queen of clubs and most of the spades.

South ran off five trumps. His discard from dummy was a diamond and a club. East just discarded clubs. West let a spade and a diamond go.

Now South was sure that West had discarded down to ace and a small diamond. He cashed dummy's two spades to discard his left of clubs, ruffed a club, led a low diamond to dummy's queen, returned a diamond and played low. West had to play his ace and South's king of diamonds and last trump accounted for the remaining two tricks.

East thought that West could have discarded more intelligently, but actually South could make the hand against any defense once the club was opened.

News Around Idaho

Rocky Says U. S. Needs More Jobs

NEW YORK, Nov. 14 (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, carrying his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination before the AFL-CIO and its 13.5 million members, said today that creating more jobs is the nation's "first order of business."

The New York governor's call for a tax cut tied to a strict control of federal spending fell largely on deaf ears at the opening session of the labor organization's convention.

The policy-making executive council has let it be known the AFL-CIO fears unemployment far more than federal deficits.

Rockefeller proposed a national "job information and placement program, including loans for jobless workers to move where they could find employment."

His remarks were in a prepared address.

He spoke as the convention prepared to consider resolutions demanding a 10-billion dollar tax cut, a drastic measure in the minimum wage, a 35-hour week and a broad range of federal programs to provide jobs for the nation's 3.5 million unemployed.

Rockefeller came to the AFL-CIO convention from Miami Beach, where he told a meeting of the Associated Press Managing Editors association Wednesday that he wants to see the president so he can return the United States to the principles on which it was built.

In an obvious attack on Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, his leading potential opponent for the GOP nomination, Rockefeller emphasized that he, unlike the senator, opposes any federal right-to-work law.

Goldwater has introduced legislation to ban union shop agreements, under which a worker must join the union after being hired. Twenty states already have such right-to-work laws.

Union Meet Called Off At Kellogg

KELLOGG, Nov. 14 (AP)—The president of the United Steelworkers union local on strike at Sunshine mine near here Wednesday announced that the local's regular monthly meeting has been postponed.

President of Steelworkers local 6089 Richard Fleming says the meeting was postponed because of such time as we have a new offer from Sunshine Mining company to submit to the membership.

"Any such new offer must be separate and apart from the business which the company has seen fit to inject into negotiations," Fleming didn't say whether the company had made such an offer.

Both union and company representatives are scheduled to meet Friday with federal mediator John Ashe. It will be the first meeting the two sides have held since the strike started Nov. 4.

The union has said the main issue in the strike is the mining company's insistence on discontinuing bus service to the mines for workers in nearby communities.

The Sunshine mine is the nation's largest producer of silver.

Former Jerome Man Dies at 86

JEROME, Nov. 14 (AP)—William Miller, 86, retired homesteader and cook, died Nov. 7 at Helena, Mont., of a brief illness.

Born March 19, 1877, in Polo, Ill., he came west with his family and homesteaded near Shoshone. He resided in Jerome from 1912 until moving to Helena. He operated cafes in Jerome.

Mr. Miller worked as a cook in Helena. He married Hazel Wells Dec. 22, 1912. Survivors include his widow, two sisters, two sons and three daughters.

Masked Gunmen Make Big Haul

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Nov. 14 (AP)—An exclusive jewelry store was robbed of "well over $100,000 worth" of diamonds last night by three masked gunmen.

A spokesman for Raymond's, Inc., located just off Wilshire boulevard, said the loss might run as high as $225,000 on the basis of retail prices, but that the exact amount would not be known until an inventory is taken.

Police said the three gunmen, wearing Halloween masks, kicked in the glass front door which had been locked as eight employees prepared to place trays of jewels in a vault. They apparently had timed the holdup so that valuables were out of display cases, officers said.

Jerome Chamber Eyes Problems Of Interstate

JEROME, Nov. 14 (AP)—Members of the Jerome Chamber of Commerce discussed what will happen in Jerome when the interstate highway goes through and various ways of holding up their business when they met Wednesday noon.

Blake Patterson discussed what happened when a Kansas toll road was completed. He said 18 towns were by-passed, 12 of which continued to flourish and six became almost ghost towns.

Patterson discussed the various methods the 12 towns used, including making malls in the main streets, etc.

The members discussed the possibility of organizing a city-county planning commission.

They voted to invite Louise Shaddock to meet with the Jerome chamber to discuss the problems involved.

T. F. Food Store Breakin Probed

Cigarettes, candy and a roll of salami were taken sometime Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning when Emmen's food store, south of Twin Falls on Blue Lakes boulevard south, was broken into.

George Emmen, owner of the store, told police the glass of the front door was broken and about 76 cartons of assorted cigarettes, several large chocolate candy bars and a roll of salami were taken.

The Twin Falls sheriff's department is continuing investigation.

IDAHO FALLS, Nov. 14 (AP)—The Idaho section of the American Society of Range Management will hold its annual meeting in Idaho Falls Dec. 7. Walter B. Rumsey, convention chairman, announced Wednesday.

POCATELLO, Nov. 14 (AP)—Law enforcement agencies in Bannock county have agreed bad check writers are in for a bad time. Justice of the Peace Callis Caldwell said he has conferred with other authorities in the county, and all agreed to follow a strict policy on bad check writers. "Flagrant violators, who write checks with no accounts at the bank or with accounts closed, will be charged with felonies," Caldwell said. This is a provision of the bad checks laws passed by the 1963 legislature, along with a clause that an insufficient funds check for more than $25 or repeated offenses will lead to a felony charge.

POCATELLO, Nov. 14 (AP)—The search for a man accused of beating a Pocatello girl on Oct. 30 went into its third week Wednesday, with no fresh leads to the whereabouts of Frank Dumont, 42, Boise. FBI agents and city and county lawmen have been checking out various reports that Dumont has been seen in this area, but nothing concrete has been turned up since Dumont's name was found on the Fort Hall Indian reservation. The car was seen burning Thursday morning, the day after the assault on a 14-year-old girl who was walking home from school. However, the report of the car was not made to authorities until last Monday.

IDAHO FALLS, Nov. 14 (AP)—Joseph P. Pechanec, director of the intermountain forest and range experiment station at Ogden, will be guest speaker at the annual meeting of the Idaho Section of the American Society of Range Management. Walter B. Rumsey, convention chairman, said the one-day meeting will open in Idaho Falls Dec. 7. The banquet speaker will be E. Chilton Phoenix, Pocatello, assistant general attorney for the Union Pacific railroad.

BOISE, Nov. 14 (AP)—The Idaho Wool Growers association reports that George D. Thomas, Dubois, has been selected as an award winner in a national farm management efficiency contest. Thomas operated a 3,960-acre ranch along with 5,000 acres of timberland. He maintains a flock of 900 ewes and 50 head of beef cattle. The citation said Thomas "sends 90-pound lambs to market in just four months and wool production is 16 pounds per ewe. His long-term range lambing percentage is 130 per cent and some years this is as high as 150 per cent."

BOISE, Nov. 14 (AP)—A burglar escaped from the Merc Department store on the Boise bench with several thousand dollars Wednesday night despite an attempt by a 17-year-old youth to halt him. Sheriff's deputies said the thief apparently stayed in the store after closing hours and then opened the safe. They said he was spotted by the youth, Mike Phillips, as he left the store through a side door. The youth told police he yelled for the man to stop and then grappled with him. He said he backed off, however, when the burglar threatened to shoot. Frank Cunningham, store manager, said the burglar apparently knew the combination to the safe and was able to open it without damaging it. Young Phillips told police the man was small and wore an Eisenhower-type military jacket and a hat.

BOISE, Nov. 14 (AP)—The late Sen. Henry Dworshak, R. Ida., is credited with having foreseen and warned against current proposals to divert water from Idaho to southern California. John O. McMurray, Idaho Republican state chairman, quoted Dworshak as saying: "It is sheer folly to let one controversial project hold up progress on several other water resources projects which would have united support. The late Senator Dworshak concluded, said McMurray, 'that such short-sighted action leaves Idaho interests statemented while others move ahead with plans to make use of our water resources outside our borders.' McMurray said Dworshak's statement 'was never more timely than now. Nothing should be allowed to interfere with such needed and fine reclamation projects as Guffy and Fremont.'

BOISE, Nov. 14 (AP)—Approving of a calendar of 1964 events is on the agenda for the Idaho State Fair and Rodeo association at a one-day meeting Friday. George W. Cleveland, Boise, is president. Speakers will include R. E. Walker, manager of the San Joaquin county fair, Stockton, Calif.

BOISE, Nov. 14 (AP)—Favorable weather during October aided in maturing Idaho's fall potato crop and production was estimated today at $2,030,000 hundredweight. The U. S. department of agriculture said the total compares with a 1962 crop of 43,575,000 and average production of 43,091,000 in the preceding five years. First general killing frost was Oct. 24, considerably later than usual, but not a record, the department said, adding: "Quality is varied, ranging from some lots being exceptionally good to some poor. Considerable green ends are prevalent. Although a rather high percentage was dug and stored above normal temperatures, early lots coming from cellars indicate they are keeping well."

BOISE, Nov. 14 (AP)—Three appointments in the Idaho Young Republican organization were announced today by Mrs. Hope Kading, Boise, state chairman. Gerald Grandall, Boise, was named Young Republican state secretary; Jack W. Carey, Idaho Falls, was chosen Idaho representative on the National Young Republican campaign committee; and Barbara L. McKenle, Boise, was named Idaho member of the National Teen-age Republican committee.

BOISE, Nov. 14 (AP)—Idaho's 1964 automobile license plates will go on sale in county assessor's offices throughout the state Monday, Dec. 2. They must be in use no later than Jan. 16. The 1964 plates are white with dark green numerals and letters. The reverse colors of the 1963 plates.

Jerome Chamber Eyes Problems Of Interstate

JEROME, Nov. 14 (AP)—Members of the Jerome Chamber of Commerce discussed what will happen in Jerome when the interstate highway goes through and various ways of holding up their business when they met Wednesday noon.

Blake Patterson discussed what happened when a Kansas toll road was completed. He said 18 towns were by-passed, 12 of which continued to flourish and six became almost ghost towns.

Patterson discussed the various methods the 12 towns used, including making malls in the main streets, etc.

The members discussed the possibility of organizing a city-county planning commission.

They voted to invite Louise Shaddock to meet with the Jerome chamber to discuss the problems involved.

T. F. Food Store Breakin Probed

Cigarettes, candy and a roll of salami were taken sometime Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning when Emmen's food store, south of Twin Falls on Blue Lakes boulevard south, was broken into.

George Emmen, owner of the store, told police the glass of the front door was broken and about 76 cartons of assorted cigarettes, several large chocolate candy bars and a roll of salami were taken.

The Twin Falls sheriff's department is continuing investigation.

Churches Set Area Youth Crusade Here

More than 10 Magic Valley churches will sponsor a nine-day youth crusade Saturday through Nov. 24 in Twin Falls, with the Rev. Dave Grant, Los Angeles, staff evangelist for Youth for Christ International, as featured speaker.

The crusade will get under way with a banquet at 7:15 p.m. Saturday in the First Baptist church. Crusade sessions are slated for 3 p.m. Sunday and Nov. 24 and 7-9 p.m. week days and Nov. 23 in the O'Leary high school auditorium.

Vaughn Nemnich, crusade chairman, notes that the crusade will feature a 60-voice choir composed of youths from throughout Magic Valley and directed by the Rev. Paul Winkler, pastor of the Shoshone Baptist church.

The Rev. Mr. Grant is a musician, speaker and recording artist. His programs utilize taped backgrounds selected from his record albums.

He was graduated from Central Bible Institute and Bob Jones university, worked for two years with "Campus Crusade for Christ" in southern California, and has served as chapel speaker at the Los Angeles county juvenile hall.

He has been counselor for the fellowship of Christian athletes at Estes Park, Colo., and attended three YFC world congresses at Madras, India; Mexico City, and Bristol, England. He has traveled throughout the world, speaking for 150 different churches and conducting numerous rallies and crusades.

Committee chairmen for the local crusade are the Rev. John Mikel, Lynwood chapel, counseling; the Rev. Allan MacMillen, Grace Bible church, prayer committee, and Richard Conner, YM-YWCA director, finance committee.

Blast Won't Shake House Coalition

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—A leading Southern senator's recent blast at House Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck isn't likely to have a lasting effect on the unofficial house coalition of Republicans and conservative Democrats.

When Sen. Richard B. Russell, D. Ga., assailed Halleck for publicly supporting the Kennedy administration's modified civil rights bill, it came as no great surprise.

While Halleck himself couldn't comment, close associates said he discounted it as a political speech designed to strengthen Russell's position in Georgia. The speech was made in Dublin, Ga.

Russell for years has headed the anticivil rights forces in the senate, while Halleck has played a leading procivil rights role in the house.

The Indianan has teamed in the house with Howard W. Smith, D. Va., chairman of the house rules committee, many times to block or slow economic legislation proposed by Democratic administrations.

But Smith's Southern contingent never has received and never has expected the support of Halleck's forces when civil rights legislation was involved.

In the 1957 house civil rights fight, which the Southern lost, 168 Republicans joined with 118 Democrats on the winning side. Only 19 Republicans lined up with the opposition.

Three years later, when another civil rights bill was passed, 132 Republicans supported the legislation and only 15 opposed it.

The fact that the Republicans deserted Southern Democrats on civil rights legislation in 1957 and 1960 did not have any apparent effect on the conservative coalition's unity on other matters.

In fact, the coalition grew so potent that the house enlarged Smith's rules committee in 1961 in an attempt to break the conservatives' domination of that committee. But somehow some of President Kennedy's major domestic proposals haven't come to a vote in the house, mainly because of leadership fears that the coalition would slap them down.

Halleck's support of the 1963 civil rights bill has been viewed by many as a political master stroke. As house leader of the party of Abraham Lincoln, Halleck hardly could have opposed the legislation.

Nixon Will Be GOP Choice, Gem Professor Says

MOSCOW, Nov. 13 (AP)—Richard Nixon will be the Republican party candidate for the presidential nomination.

Dr. Boyd Martin, professor of political science and dean of the college of letters at the University of Idaho, made the prediction before the chamber of commerce here today.

He said the GOP wasn't ready to adopt Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater's brand of conservatism. He said Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, New York, could have won early in 1960, but he can't now.

Goldwater will not be able to win the West, nor be strong enough to effectively carry the South, Martin said.

Mme. Nhu Wings Her Way to Rome

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 14 (AP)—Mme. Ngo Dinh Nhu of South Viet Nam arrived today from the United States on her way to join her three younger children in Rome. They were taken there after the Saigon coup that killed their father, Vietnamese Presidential Adviser Ngo Dinh Nhu.

Mme. Nhu, accompanied by her older daughter, 18-year-old Le Thu, landed here on a polar flight from Los Angeles and exchanged planes for Rome. She and Le Thu were in the United States during the coup Nov. 1.

Diem's War Strategy Appraised

SAIGON, Viet Nam, Nov. 14 (AP)—The commander of U. S. military forces in South Viet Nam says the late President Ngo Dinh Diem lacked military training but did a good job of waging war against the communist Viet Cong.

The Saigon coup will have little over-all effect on the conduct of the military campaign, Gen. Paul D. Harkins said Wednesday.

Leaders of the coup contend Diem never could have won the war. Critics of the old regime also charge that Harkins was too close to it, and there have been rumors that he might be withdrawn.

Asked for comment on the rumors, Harkins said in an interview:

"That decision is not up to me. Naturally, I would like to see this job through to the end."

The New York Times said today in a dispatch from Washington that Harkins is slated to stay in his post beyond an expected two-year term ending in February.

The Times quoted qualified sources as saying Harkins' appointment was a surprise.

the duty will be extended in June, when he reaches the normally mandatory retirement age of 60.
Harkins predicted that 1964 would be the decisive year in the war.
"Of course, it is not a question of a clear-cut victory over the Viet Cong, but of getting the situation enough under control that the Vietnamese can carry on and take care of things alone," he said.
Harkins said he felt Diem never "was really a military man."
"But he was bold," the general added. "Some of his military operations, when he was given good information, were very effective."

Rockefeller Fattens Democrat Files on Goldwater

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP) — The Democratic National committee fattened its already bulging files on Sen. Barry Goldwater today with some of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's blasts at the Arizona Republican.

The Goldwater camp remained silent about the New York governor's newest attack on his potential rival for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination.

But Samuel Brightman, publicity director for the Democratic National committee, reported cheerfully that Rockefeller's indictment of Goldwater's views in a speech before the Associated Press Managing Editors Association in Miami Beach, Fla., was being filed under "what Republicans say about Republicans."

"We have been Goldwater fans for quite a while," Brightman said in an interview. "We have read and re-read his quotes all ready for anything that might happen. We even send out some questions now and then that Republicans who are not as conservative as he is can put to him." Brightman volunteered that the national committee didn't close its files on former Vice President Richard M. Nixon after he lost the 1960 presidential election.

"We are not among those who regard Nixon as wished up, so far as the Republicans are concerned," Brightman said. He added that there are files on Rockefeller, Gov. George Romney of Michigan and others who might figure in the presidential contest.

Rockefeller asked his listeners to "imagine the prospect of the Republican party and its principles, as enunciated from Abraham Lincoln to Dwight D. Eisenhower, being presented to the American people next year in terms of a candidate and a platform which would include the advocacy of such proposals—for instance, in the foreign field as having the United States withdraw from the United Nations, giving military field commanders discretion to use nuclear weapons, abruptly cutting off all foreign aid." He continued:

"And on the home front, rolling back social gains, selling the TVA, ending immediately all support prices for agricultural products, leaving the protection of human rights up to the states, including Alabama and Mississippi, while, on the other hand, making the so-called right-to-work laws a malpractice of federal mandate, abolishing progressive income tax while at the same time promising to restore fiscal integrity and bolstering military strength against communist aggression."

Benson Rap By Harding To Get Reply

BOISE, Nov. 14 (UPI)—Rep. Ralph J. Benson, Salt Lake City, will reply to an attack made on his party by Idaho Rep. Ralph J. Haller at a speech here Monday night, an associate has disclosed.

The associate said Benson probably would talk little about the pending assignment as southern coordinator for the House Education Committee, of which he is a full-time employee.

Harding said last month that Benson's alleged acceptance of a "disastrous" effect group with a "disastrous" effect on the reputation of the LDS church members.

Benson's address will be presented by a press conference at the Hotel Boise at 1:45 p.m. Monday.

Harding, at a press conference yesterday, said his chastising speech against Elder Benson did "harm" to the church. He said he "resents" his Sept. 26 speech which termed political.

The former cabinet member has denied he is a member of the LDS church. Benson spoke at a dinner early in September honoring Robert Welch, a founder of the church society.

Cigarettes Said Responsible For More Deaths Than Autos

TORONTO, Nov. 14 (UPI)—An American cancer research specialist said yesterday cigarette smoking is responsible for more deaths than automobile accidents or any of the viruses or bacteria known to man.

Dr. Frederick G. Brock, associate cancer research scientist at Roswell Park Memorial Institute in Buffalo, N.Y., addressed the second session of a three-part seminar on smoking at Fairview United Church.

The rise in lung cancer among men—a ninefold increase in incidence from 1931 to 1960—has taken on "epidemic proportions," Brock said. Of 16 patients who report to their physicians with lung cancer, on the average only one is cured, he said.

Brock said between 2,000 and 3,000 died of lung cancer during 1962.

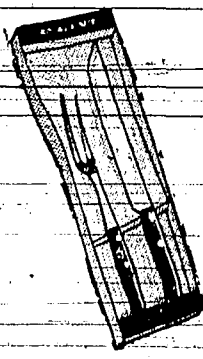

"This figure, coupled with the number of heart and bronchial diseases bred by smoking puts cigarettes well ahead of traffic accidents and infectious illnesses as a killer," he said.

He said chemical studies have disclosed a number of substances that will produce cancer in both men and animals but as yet no one single substance has been singled out as the culprit.

Tests conducted at Roswell Park on many different brands of cigarettes, including five brands of filter cigarettes and some with special innovations, added menthol or reduced nicotine levels, showed that every brand was cancer producing, he said.

He said scientists now are concentrating much of their efforts to studying the psychological factors that induce young persons to take up smoking and methods for reversing these factors.

American Flag Presented to War Mothers

EDEN, Nov. 14—Edene American War Mothers were presented a silk American flag by Mrs. Ella Jones, Twin Falls, a former member of the Eden chapter when they met at the home of Mrs. George Lattimer.

Officers were installed. Mrs. Nona Adams, Jerome chapter past president, was installing officer. Officers are Mrs. Lattimer, president; Mrs. Curtis Metcalf, vice president; Mrs. D. A. McCann, recording secretary; Mrs. W. D. Dickard, corresponding secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Owen Hammond, historian; Mrs. Blanche Sheridan, chaplain; and Mrs. Emmett Spencer, sergeant-at-arms.

Special guests were Mrs. James McCan and Mrs. Ann Plaso, both Las Vegas, Nev., and Mrs. Estella Thorpe, Jerome. Mrs. Lillian Whitlington received the floral gift.

A "get well" card was signed by the group and sent to Mrs. Maude Metcalf, who is a patient at St. Benedict's hospital, Jerome. She will also receive a potted plant from the chapter.

Eden chapter participated in the Veterans' day school programs presented at the local schools.

Next meeting will be the annual Christmas party to be held at 6:30 p.m. Dec. 12 at the Orange hall. Families of members will be special guests for the potluck dinner. Members are asked to attend in Centennial costume.

Holiday Party Held by Group

A Halloween masquerade party was held by the Pythian sisters social club at the home of Mrs. Ralph Uhler. Carol Turner was a guest.

Mrs. Archie Turner won first prize and Miss Turner, second.

Plans were made for a Christmas gift exchange party to be held Dec. 5 at the home of Mrs. Roberta Clausen, 134 Monroe street.

Members are asked to bring gifts for the Idaho Youth Ranch to this meeting.

Miss Gardner Is Bride of Larry Bowles

FILER, Nov. 14—Phyllis Faye Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gardner, Filer, was married to Larry Bowles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bowles, Hansen, Oct. 26 in the First Methodist church.

The Rev. Allen R. Reesor performed the double ring ceremony before an altar flanked with baskets of bronze and gold chrysanthemums.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white chiffon gown accented with a long sleeved lace jacket. Her shoulder-length veil was held with satin roses and a tiny pearl comb. She carried a white Bible covered with a cascade bouquet of shattered chrysanthemums and satin streamers.

Mrs. Wally Deford, Hansen, was matron of honor. She wore a red velvet dress with white accessories and a corsage of gold and bronze chrysanthemums. Wally Deford was best man.

The bride's mother wore a blue wool dress with matching mohair jacket and gold shattered chrysanthemum corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a pink wool dress with beige accessories and a corsage of gold and bronze chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table, covered with lace, was centered with a tiered decorated wedding cake and flanked by bronze candles in silver holders. Pamela Gardner and Linda Gardner, sisters of the bride, served refreshments.

Sandra Voss, Miller Recite Nuptial Promise

BUHL, Nov. 14 — Autumn colors of gold, bronze and orange were used as the background setting for the double ring wedding ceremony Nov. 2 uniting in marriage Sandra Voss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Voss, Buhl, and Mr. Robert Miller, Prescott, Ariz. The Rev. Robert Burchell solemnized the nuptials in the First Baptist church, Buhl. The church was decorated with beauty baskets of bronze and gold chrysanthemums and candelabra with lighted bronze tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white-peau-de-sauve gown accented with a sunburst effect molded bodice. The bodice was styled with a scooped neckline, puffed sleeves and a miniature self covered buttons. A detachable train, detailed with lace, highlighted the brilliant floor-length skirt. A full-length train of alencon lace embellished with sequins and pearls released her shoulders in a long veil of illusion.

Her jewelry was a cultured pearl pendant. She carried a white-Bible topped with cascading orange and white flowers. Her bouquet of bright orange chrysanthemums and white baby's breath was tied with white satin ribbons.

Mrs. Larry Voss, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and Mrs. Dave Ross, Jerome, was bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of gold-satin-moire with a full skirted gold satin train. The bridesmaids wore a full-length train of gold-satin-moire with a full skirted gold satin train. The bridesmaids wore a full-length train of gold-satin-moire with a full skirted gold satin train.

MR. AND MRS. STEVE MILLER (Hamilton photo)

orange blossoms flanked the cake. A silver coffee service and crystal punch bowl completed the table appointments.

Mrs. N. O. Johnson, Twin Falls, and Mrs. Howard Carson, Arco, acted as the bride and groom, respectively. The wedding cake, Mrs. Sidney Ownbey presided at the coffee service and Mrs. Ray King, Twin Falls, aunt of the bride, poured punch.

Mrs. Marvin Hopwood and Geraldine Beach, assisted by Joan Prudek and Gail Prudek, were in-charge of the gift table. Flower arrangements and corsages were made by Mrs. Al Kramer, Mrs. Ghester-Noh, Mrs. Rudolph Peterson, Mrs. Joe Wasiko, Mrs. Gus Kudlac and Mrs. George Ensuna.

Members of the Baraca Philathea Sunday school class were in charge of the reception.

Background piano music was played throughout the reception by Charlene Kennedy.

For her wedding trip, the new Mrs. Miller changed to a gold-colored dress with black accessories. She wore the orange rose corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Out-of-town guests attended from Indianapolis, Parma, Arco, Burley, Jerome, Twin Falls and Castleford.

The bride is a 1962 graduate of Buhl high school. She attended Steven Heneger's Business college, Salt Lake City, and is employed by the First Federal Savings and Loan association, Twin Falls.

The bridegroom is a 1960 graduate of the Buhl high school and is employed by the Twin Falls city engineering department.

Pre-nuptial events honoring the bride included a miscellaneous shower held at the Fairview Grange hall hosted by the Fairview community; a shower co-hosted by Mrs. John Wagner and her daughter, Eva Wagner, and a shower at the home of Mrs. N. O. Johnson, Twin Falls, for members of the bride's family.

Chevrolet now makes four different types, each with its own distinct advantages. Whichever one you buy will be a lot more truck than your money bought the last time!

FLEETSIDE. Based on sales, the best liked pickup in the world. Outstanding feature is its large body extending clear out over the wheels. Two body sizes. Two wheelbases. Best riding truck, by far, with coil springs all around and independent front suspension. Cab and body have double-wall construction. Chevrolet Fleetside—best for all-around use.

STEPSIDE. Has flat interior body walls and convenient side steps between cab and rear fenders. Comes in same two sizes as the Fleetside plus one bigger size. Big model has heavier frame, 4-speed transmission and leaf-spring rear suspension for maximum payloads. Standard engine is 230-cu.-in. Six. A 292 Six or 283 V8 is available at extra cost.

RAMPSIDE. Nobody else makes a pickup exactly like this one with a ramp at the side. The ramp makes loading easy because of its 16-inch rise. Truck also has a conventional tailgate. Body and frame floor assembly are very rigid because they are welded together. Has larger 95-hp air-cooled engine this year. Independent coil-spring suspension all around.

EL CAMINO. If you want a pickup as good looking as any car on the road, this is the one! It can work hard, and look like a million dollars doing it—the only pickup in the world with Body by Fisher! You can order an El Camino as plain or as fancy as you wish: bucket seats, air conditioning, 4-speed transmission, power brakes are some of its extra-cost options.

Cubans Kill Four Alleged CIA Agents

MIAMI, Nov. 14 (UPI)—Four more Cubans, identified as CIA agents, were executed by a Castro firing squad in Havana last night, Havana radio said today.

The four were charged with "landing on the Cuban coast from a small boat for espionage and subversive activities," said the broadcast, monitored here.

The executions brought to 13 the number of men killed in less than a week. All were charged with being members of the CIA.

Five were shot to death last Friday and four more on Tuesday. All the executions were carried out at the dread La Cabana fortress prison in Havana.

The men were identified as Ramiro Fonseca Fernandez, Alfredo Alfonso Ibanez, Israel Rodriguez Lima and Erasmo Machin Garcia.

Jerome Will Combine Two Senior Events

JEROME, Nov. 14—The baccalaureate exercises and commencement will be combined next spring at Jerome high school. The awards usually given at commencement will be given at the students' awards assembly, officials report.

A new method of selecting honor students also will be used. Plans for the graduation exercises were discussed at the meeting of the Jerome school board.

Honor students will be chosen on the basis of the first seven semester grades, plus the third nine-week grading period. The five students will be chosen as honor students instead of having a valedictorian and salutatorian. Three of the students will speak at the graduation exercises and the other two will give the invocation and benediction.

The board approved interschool wrestling for next year. Edgar Lewis, Harvey Lewis, Floyd Lamb and Thane Maddox appeared and questioned the legality of the registration fee and the school withholding the report cards for those who have not paid.

Four bus drivers were hired, including Mrs. Dewey Cavin, Irene Chess, Charlotte Childers and Lloyd J. Peterson.

The board approved sending Ronald Ray and Vanelle Betts, music instructors, to the music educators' conference to be held March 10-21.

Reapportionment Fight May Include County Officials

BOISE, Nov. 14 (UPI)—Commissioners, clerks and prosecutors of the big land-small population counties in Idaho may join the legal fight against reapportionment of the state.

Franklin County Clerk Cleo Swenson, Preston, executive secretary of the commissioners and clerks association, said he is writing his executive committee about a proposal to help underwrite costs of the court battle.

At the same time, Valley County Prosecutor Larry Schoenhut, president of the Prosecuting Attorneys association, said he is also polling his membership about the proposal.

The case, brought by Democratic State Rep. Herman McDewitt, a Pocatello attorney, in the names of citizens from Boise and Pocatello, attacks the present representation in both houses of the legislature. It is scheduled for trial Monday in Boise before a three-judge federal panel.

McDewitt contends legislative representation in Idaho is overbalanced in favor of rural areas and demands that city dwellers get equal representation on a plan proposed along these lines would group Valley, Adams and Washington counties into one senatorial district. He expressed fear that Washington county, with its Welser-area population, could outvote the other two counties and grab the senator.

He said the interests of the three were not always the same.

"Prosecutors have no objection to the representative deal," Schoenhut said, "but some counties are so large in area that they need representation in the senate. The prosecutors I've talked to think we ought to fight that."

Sources close to Gov. Robert E. Smylie said he was surprised when California Gov. Edmund G. Brown told a news conference about his "water" call to Smylie Tuesday.

The Idaho governor said he thought the five-minute phone call was just an informal inquiry to determine whether there were any areas of negotiation possible in California's proposed grab of water from Idaho's Snake river. Smylie, the sources said, assured Brown the people of Idaho would strongly resist any such move and that negotiation was not possible.

Local Girl Is "Duchess" For Knights

Sue Louise Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Owen Ellis, 1638 Poplar avenue, has been selected as Duchess of the College of Idaho Intercollegiate Knights, honorary men's service organization.

Miss Ellis is a sophomore majoring in English and a member of the College of Idaho orchestra and Canterbury club.

The Knights held their formal initiation Sunday.

New pages initiated by the Knights include Bruce Roberts, Twin Falls.

The group will send six delegates to the regional convention Saturday at Oregon College of Education, Monmouth, Ore. The six include Russell Prough, Elmer, and Hank Wendling, Twin Falls. Also attending the convention will be Miss Ellis, who will participate in the regional "Favorite Duchess" contest. The girl selected will represent the region at the national contest.

Candidates Told to Stay Out of N. J.

TRENTON, Nov. 14 (UPI)—New Jersey is off limits to a presidential-primary fight for delegates between Sen. Barry Goldwater, R., Ariz., and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

State GOP Chairman Webster B. Todd revealed yesterday he had told both men to "stay the hell out of the state."

"I told them to leave us alone," Todd said. He delivered his message to Lieutenants of Rockefeller and Goldwater.

Todd said the two leading contenders for the Republican presidential nomination could visit the state.

And he said the state party would tolerate a preferential primary between the two which would serve merely as a popularity contest.

But he said the party would not stand for a presidential primary that pitted a list of delegates pledged to support Rockefeller against a list pledged to support Goldwater against a list backed by the state party.

ENLISTS IN ARMY
WENDELL, Nov. 14—Michael Lynn Stevenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Stevenson, 389 east avenue B, Wendell, has enlisted in the army for three years and is undergoing basic combat training at Ft. Ord, Calif. Upon completion of basic training he will be assigned to airborne training at Ft. Benning, Ga.

SUE LOUISE ELLIS
Twin Falls student at the College of Idaho, Caldwell, was selected as Duchess of the College of Idaho Intercollegiate Knights, honorary men's service organization.

Fight Arrest

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 14 (AP)—The Yale academic community turned out in full force Wednesday night to protest the arrest of Yale Prof. Frederick C. Burghoorn in Russia on spy charges.

More than 500 faculty members and students packed the Yale law school auditorium and applauded loudly as Prof. James T. Foster told them they were gathered "to defend not only a just cause, but a just man."

History Prof. Piruz Kazemzadeh urged that all cultural exchange programs with Russia be suspended until the complete details of Burghoorn's arrest are made public.

Rural Road Is Opened At Richfield

RICHFIELD, Nov. 14 — Opening of the rural road northeast of Richfield was announced by James R. Brown, road supervisor for Richfield highway district at the board meeting held Tuesday evening.

The road has been closed for three weeks while a new bridge was built and slough waters were rechanneled to give relief from floods such as experienced the past two years.

The new bridge, located about 200 yards above the former bridge site, is much higher than the ground around it to prevent damage from ice in spring run-offs.

The Big Wood Canal company diverted waters from the Jim Byrnes slough to bring flood relief to the Mack-Crowther, LeRoy Magoffin and Grant Hawes ranches. Part of the former channel was filled in and a new channel dug through the Crowther ranch, eliminating the ice jam hazards to the former winding route through the Magoffin ranch.

The bridge and new channel were completed just in time for the domestic run of water from Magic dam, which started Tuesday for a three-day run.

Approximate costs of $4,500 were reviewed by the highway district clerk. The new bridge and new road alignment are joint projects of the highway district and Big Wood Canal company.

Pilot Survives Two Crashes In Single Hour

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va., Nov. 14 (AP)—After two plane crashes within an hour, Lieut. (jg) J. M. Baucum, Raleigh, N. C., was ready for a shot of brandy.

Trial was just what the doctor ordered, along with a steak.

First his jet fighter lost power after leaving the aircraft carrier Forrestal. Baucum ejected, his plane crashed and burned.

A helicopter picked up Baucum, then developed engine trouble and plummeted into woods. Baucum was unhurt.

Slides Shown
On Rock City
At Shoshone

SHOSHONE, Nov. 14—Slides on the City of Rocks, north of Shoshone, were shown by Mrs. Viola McKendrick at the Chamber of Commerce meeting Tuesday night.

Proposal is under way to build a road to the area for at the present time only access is by horseback or foot.

Cecil Cope reported around 90 persons had attended the annual conservation meeting Saturday night. This was considerably more than had attended a year ago.

North Side Communities will meet at Shoshone bowling alley on Thursday.

State Patrolman William Van Dine reported the driver training course at Shoshone high school will begin the second semester and has been filled with junior and senior students.

Brazilian
Plan Dumped
By Nations

SÃO PAULO, Brazil, Nov. 14 (AP)—A U.S.-backed proposal to give Latin Americans greater responsibility in directing the Alliance for Progress apparently faced a rough road today after general opposition from 20 nations.

The Brazilian proposal apparently was intended to torpedo the U.S.-backed plan to create a seven-nation coordinating committee to pass on aid projects.

The Brazilian proposal apparently was intended to torpedo the U.S.-backed plan to create a seven-nation coordinating committee to pass on aid projects.

The Brazilians reportedly had another maneuver in reserve. Informants said Brazil has indicated that if the seven-nation committee is approved, it will insist that the action be ratified by the congress of each member nation. This could delay formation of the committee for several years.

The Brazilians argued that the seven-nation committee would only impede the aid program by increasing red tape. But many delegates agreed that Brazil's opposition was based on the feeling that she would be reduced to the level of other nations applying for aid funds and that a mostly Latin-American committee would be less sensitive to political considerations than the United States has been.

U.S. Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman, the head of the American delegation, placed U.S. support firmly behind the proposed committee. He said if the program to accelerate Latin-American economic growth is lagging, it is largely Latin America's fault.

Harriman said that since the Alliance for Progress was launched 27 months ago, the United States has poured out 2.3 billion dollars.

Mrs. Mortenson
Receives Pencil

BURLEY, Nov. 14—The traveling pencil was awarded to Mrs. A. Mortenson Tuesday evening for the table topic speech "Christmas shopping by telephone" at the Burley Toastmistress meeting Tuesday in the American Legion hall. Table-top mistress was Mrs. J. U. Dittell.

Invocation was given by Mrs. Ann Funk. Pledge to the flag was read by Mrs. A. H. Stevenson. Mrs. Leif Williams was inducted into the Burley Toastmistress club and presented a message by Mrs. John Pyne, membership chairman.

Mrs. A. H. Stevenson, toastmistress, introduced workshop chairman, Mrs. Rulon Stoker for advance learning in Toastmistress, and Mrs. LePage Layton, first year goals in Toastmistress club. A summary was given by each chairman after a study in the two groups.

General evaluator was Mrs. T. Wayne Woodland. Hostess for the evening was Mrs. A. H. Stevenson.

Guest night will be held at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 26 at the American Legion hall.

Twist? No!

HONOLULU, Nov. 14 (AP)—Tahitian hula, yes; the twist, no!

Mormon Bishop John H. Vanderberg wrote to the Latter-day Saints College of Hawaii that the twist is objectionable.

He approved the Tahitian hula and the traditional hip swinging Hawaiian, Fijian, Tongan and Maori dances at the school's Poty-nesian Institute.

School authorities said Wednesday the ban on the twist has raised only "a few grumbles" from the students.

Church Wants Foreign Aid
Funds in Defense Budget

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—Sen. Frank Church, D. Idaho, wants 77 million dollars in foreign aid funds earmarked for NATO in the national defense budget.

Church argued during senate debate on the foreign aid bill that the NATO funds are necessary to maintain a military alliance.

"This is not foreign aid," Church said. "This is a commitment on our part to maintain a military alliance. We are in that alliance for purposes of our own defense."

Following debate, the senate approved an amendment to the foreign aid bill which Church said would eliminate foreign aid grants to "rich and fully self-sufficient countries."

The amendment, co-sponsored by Church and Senators Wayne

YOUR BIRTHDAY
and HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, Nov. 14 — Born today, you are first and foremost of a humanitarian nature. Not one to adhere to the motto, "Live and Let Live," your standard is far more likely to be "Live and Help Live." No person is too insignificant to be the object of your concern; no problem too small to receive your time and energy in the consideration of its solution. Only take care that you do not so give of yourself and your talents to others that you forget your own needs.

Because you give much, it is natural that you should receive much. The object of love and affection, for many you are the touchstone of security that makes the world go 'round. Your gains will probably never amount to a great deal — if gains are to be counted purely from a material point of view; but gains of the spirit will be yours a-plenty!

Your loyalty to friends and loved ones would be difficult to match, and because the standard you set in this direction is so unusually high, you must not be disappointed should your mate fall short of it now and again. Choose your marriage partner for those qualities of heart that come nearest your own, for "nearest" is about as close as you will be able to find.

Among those born on this date are: Aaron Copeland, composer; Mamie Eisenhower, former First Lady; Van Wyck Mason, noted mystery writer.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Friday, Nov. 15

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Care in the selection of activities — particularly as regards the order you impose upon them — should bring an especially good day.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — Time to concentrate on issues of house and home. To neglect the needs of the family is to court disaster.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20) — Business prospers, especially if a trip is involved. Be wary of accepting another's responsibilities.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — A gains-plus day if you keep strictly to business. Should fun beckon, however, weigh the popularity gains against finances.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — A day when to give of yourself will ultimately result in giving to yourself. Avoid stinting in the generosity department.

ARIES (March 21-April 20) — Keep your head, cooperate with co-workers, remember that silence is golden — and all should be well.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21) — Take all possible precautions against becoming involved in a situation that could lead to serious financial difficulties.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — Best to gear your own mood to that of the group. The Gemini who displays his lone-wolf qualities today is bound to lose.

CANCER (June 22-July 23) — Lay unsuccessful projects aside temporarily. Difficulties may well solve themselves as you turn to more productive enterprises.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — Where personal relationships have been of doubtful nature, seek to instill trust by some generous deed. There is much you can do to help.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23) — A fine day that could easily be wasted by the Virgo who is looking over the wrong shoulder!

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) — Keep your wits about you and avoid becoming distracted. Follow a single course of action until you achieve your ends.

Green Bay-Bear Contest Sunday Has Chicago's Fans at Fevered Pitch

CHICAGO, Nov. 14 (AP)—This big city is all shook up sportswise for the first time since the White Sox won the American league pennant in 1959. Sunday's National Football league showdown between the deadlocked Western conference leaders, the Green Bay Packers and Chicago Bears, is the reason. You'd think with $5 tickets reportedly scurrying all over the countryside for TV perches—that a world championship was at stake.

Actually, it's only the 10th game of a 14-game season for the two clubs, bitter rivals since 1920. And the coaches of both teams have said, in effect, don't go away folks—there's lots more to come after Sunday.

But the let's-play-one-game-at-a-time theme of Bear coach George Halas and Green Bay's Vince Lombardi, hasn't kidded a single pro-football devotee.

The capacity 48,600 fans to be ushered into Wrigley field will include standees who are going to be in a block-long ticket line at 4:30 a.m. Monday and some who slept in but paid as high as $20 scalper's price for budding privileges.

Paradoxically, all football roads will lead out of Chicago Sunday, except for the lucky ticket holders.

Special trains will haul fans from Chicago to Green Bay, Ill., 145 miles distant, and Epina, Wis., 72 miles away, in a package deal including transportation, food and access to TV sets capturing the game telecast from stations beyond the 75-mile blackout area.

Other cities such as Milwaukee, Wis., Rockford, Ill., South Bend, Ind., and communities within range of outlying TV stations also expect an influx of thousands of Chicago area fans. A South Bend inn offered free use of 175 rooms, on a first-come, first-served basis for TV customers, presumably hungry ones.

The Bear and Packer players are talking of a good game, led by their coaches with stock-in-trade comment.

"There has to be a bigger charge for everybody this week," said Halas. "We haven't had one game that meant so much to us in a long time. Our boys are more attentive. They're on their toes, listening to everything that's said."

At Green Bay, Lombardi was his old crisp self with: "Of course we expect to win. We're going down there to win. We never expect to lose."

Vince was less specific about the starting status of quarterback Bart Starr, who had a splint removed from his broken right hand Tuesday and began warming up for the big game.

Packer partisans feel John Ruch, directing the past three Green Bay successes, again will start, with Starr entering if the going gets as tough as in the Bears season-opening 10-3 conquest.

The betting gentry figure the Packers will top their lone field goal production against the inspired Bears on Sept. 18. The Packers are favored by six points.

Even the Bears expect this one to break open. "I figure we're going to need 20 points to win," said fleet flanker Johnny Morris. "If we can get ahead, we'll win. If they get ahead, I don't know."

Coach Halas has guards scanning adjoining buildings for spies at Wrigley field this week. But Bears quarterback Bill Wade probably accurately summed up the whole tense situation, observing:

"We're familiar with their personnel and they know ours. They're not the kind of team that does a lot of changing around from week to week."

"It'll just be a matter of us going out there and getting the job done."

Hawks Outlast Boston by 6-4

CHICAGO, Nov. 14 (AP)—The National Hockey league leading Chicago Black Hawks moved out to a 4-0 lead midway in the second period Wednesday night, then had to battle to save a 6-4 victory over Boston.

The issue wasn't settled until the final second when Hawk scoring star Bobby Hull sank his second goal into an empty Boston net.

The Hawks increased their hoop lead to six points, over the Montreal Canadiens, who were tied by Toronto. Chicago now has won all seven of its games on home ice this season.

Wing Kenny Wharram scored his seventh and eighth goals of the year early in the first period.

Packers Conduct Secret Workout

GREEN BAY, Wis., Nov. 14 (AP)—Bay Packer Coach Vince Lombardi locked the gates of City stadium Wednesday and excluded newsmen as the defending National Football league champions continued workouts for Sunday's showdown with the Bears in Chicago.

Two city policemen were stationed at the stadium gates to insure that only members of the Packer family were admitted.

There were no reports on what the Packers did, but it was understood that all the players joined in the drill, including quarterback Bart Starr and offensive end Ron Kramer.

Kramer's Toe Makes Him Top NFL Scorer

NEW YORK, Nov. 14 (AP)—Jerry Kramer, the man who took over Paul Hornung's place-kicking job at Green Bay, is the new leader in the National Football league scoring race with 75 points on 15 field goals and 30 extra points. Kramer, Sandpoint, Idaho, passed Cleveland's Jimmy Brown over the week-end by kicking four extra points against Minnesota while Brown was held scoreless by Pittsburgh. Brown has 72 on 12 touchdowns. He is the only non-kicker among the first seven in scoring.

Bullet Fine Is Lowered To $5,000

NEW YORK, Nov. 14 (AP)—A $25,000 fine levied against the owners of the new Baltimore Bullets by the National Basketball association's board of governors six months ago was reduced to $5,000 Wednesday.

The fine was imposed because Chicago Attractions, Inc., owners of the Chicago Zephyrs, moved its NBA franchise to Baltimore without requesting permission from the circuit's board of governors and in violation of an agreement to remain in Chicago for three years.

The Zephyrs operated in the Windy City for two years. Walter Kennedy, new president of the NBA, said Wednesday in a statement:

"On May 22, 1963, Chicago Attractions, Inc., present operators of the Baltimore Bullets, were assessed $25,000 by the board of governors of the National Basketball association.

"This assessment was imposed because its management had concluded arrangements to transfer its Chicago franchise to Baltimore without requesting permission of the board as stipulated in the league rules and in violation of their agreement to remain in Chicago for a period of three years at the time the franchise was granted."

"The review requested by Chicago Attractions, Inc., vice president of the Baltimore Bullets by the board of governors at its fall meeting today modified its assessment to $5,000. Immediate payment was made to me by the Baltimore management."

Mississippi Is Best on Defense

NEW YORK, Nov. 14 (AP)—Mississippi's football team has been among the nation's defense leaders almost every hour during the past decade. This season is no exception.

The latest figures compiled by the NCAA service bureau and released Wednesday show that Ole Miss leads in total defense, rushing defense and defense against scoring. Texas Western has moved into the top spot in pass defense.

In total defense, Mississippi holds a commanding edge. The Rebels have allowed an average of only 121.0 yards a game while runner-up Southern Mississippi's average is 149.5. Harvard is third with 164.9 followed by Memphis State, 165.6.

Middies Seek Way to Stop Wilkinson

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 14 (AP)—Navy has a simple but difficult strategy for conquering its old nemesis, Duke, Saturday: Keep the ball away from halfback Jay Wilkinson as much as possible.

Wayne Hardin, coach of the nation's No. 2 team, made it clear Wednesday that he considers the quick-starting Blue Devil safety man; runner and pass catcher to be Navy's No. 1 problem.

"I don't think we'll face a back all year as good as Wilkinson," Hardin said. "He's very dangerous and can break open the ball game on any one play. We had just as soon not give him the football on a punt return, kickoff or any other way if we can help it."

Hardin remembers Wilkinson's running abilities from two years ago when, as a sophomore, he led Duke to a 30-9 route of Navy in the Norfolk, Va., Oyster bowl.

"He's a great broken field runner," the Navy coach continued. "They say he's not fat, but his speed is deceptive. He goes as fast as necessary to get in the end zone. He went 78 yards against us and our boys couldn't catch him."

Wilkinson, son of Oklahoma Coach Bud Wilkinson, has scored 10 touchdowns to lead Duke point-making this year, and most of them have come on spectacular runs.

Celts Blow Lead, Rally Past L.A.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14 (AP)—The Boston Celtics blew a 20-point first-half lead, battled furiously through 10 ties in the third period and then went on to beat the Los Angeles Lakers 114-110 in a National Basketball association game Wednesday night.

The Celtics, who now top the East with a 10-1 record, led by 40-20 early in the second period. The Lakers rallied to tie the score 47-47 before the Celtics took a 53-49 halftime lead.

Jerry West, high in the game with 35 points, scored 17 of them in the third period as the clubs battled to an 82-82 deadlock at the horn.

The Celtics, who Bill Russell, making an interception and a rebound, scored nine in a row, two by Russell, three by John Havlicek and four by Jim Loscutoff, to take a 101-92 lead with 5:30 left.

Robustelli Will Retire This Season

NEW YORK, Nov. 14 (AP)—Andy Robustelli, the outstanding end and defensive coach of the New York Giants, says he is going to quit playing after the current season.

The 36-year-old from man of the National Football league's Eastern conference champions disclosed his decision in an off-the-cuff remark following a dinner at the New Haven where he was the featured speaker, the New York Times said.

He confirmed this Wednesday to William N. Wallace, a football writer of the Times.

"Yes, I'll probably quit after this season," said Robustelli, of Stamford, Conn. "I don't know what the fuss is about. After all, I'm 36 years old and I've been playing for 13 years. I have to quit sometime."

Robustelli, a right defensive end, has never missed a game for the Giants since he was traded to the club by the Los Angeles Rams in 1956. He has played in 100 league, playoff and championship contests and has been at seven pro bowl all-star games.

Robustelli's decision surprised club officials.

Any Records Set At Jakarta Won't Be Recognized

LONDON, Nov. 14 (AP)—Donald Paine, secretary of the International Amateur Athletic federation, said Thursday any records set in the first games of the New Emerging Forces in Jakarta would not be recognized.

"It's impossible to recognize records at a meet that is illegal," he added.

The organizers of GANEFO have never sought a permit from the IAAF to run the games.

Boozer Pitches Two-Hitter

SAN JUAN, Nov. 14 (AP)—John Booser of the Philadelphia Phillies pitched a two-hitter and struck out nine Wednesday night as Arecibo defeated Santurce 5-0 in a Puerto Rican winter league baseball game.

Booser raised his league-leading strikeout total to 64.

In other games, Ponce beat Caguas 4-0 and San Juan downed Mayaguez 11-1.

Alworth Is Among Best In Receiving

NEW YORK, Nov. 14 (AP)—Lance Alworth is called Bambl because of his deer-like speed. After he caught 13 passes Sunday in Boston they were calling him "the greatest," "fantastic" and "the best I've ever seen."

Alworth earned recognition as The Associated Press' player of the week in the American Football league for his part in San Diego's 7-6 victory over Boston. The lone San Diego score came on a 27-yard screen pass from Tobin Rote to Alworth whose 13 catches tied the AFL record.

"He has to be the greatest receiver I've ever seen," said Rote, who has been playing pro football since 1950 with such teams as the Green Bay Packers, Detroit Tigers and the Toronto Argonauts before coming to San Diego. "He's got everything—speed, the ability to stop dead and come back—He can jump with the best of them and he has great hands. Look at the future—he has ahead of him."

"Yeah, Gleeson is my own pick. If I couldn't pick my own choices, I wouldn't have taken the job."

Gleeson will be the first base coach, the same job Berra had last year. Yogi will manage from the bench.

"Yeah," he said, "you can run the club better from the bench. And I'm gonna be running the club. Nobody else. Just like Ralph Houk did when he was manager."

"Ralph and I had a talk after I got the job and he became general manager. 'You're the boss,' he told me. 'No matter what happens, I don't intend to interfere. If you ever want me for anything, fine. If you don't, I'll be all right, too.'"

"I intend to run the club my way, but if I ever feel I need advice, I'll ask him. Why not? It's no shame to listen. But I'll make the final decision. You can bet on that."

Berra admitted his life has become a bit more hectic since he was promoted.

"I get more phone calls and letters now," he said, "and everybody, it seems, wants me for personal appearances. I have to turn most of them down. I'm not afraid to make speeches any more but I'm still not real good at it. Except when they have questions and answers. That I like. Because then I know what I'm talking about."

Normally, Yogi looks forward to the off-season. A homebody, he can't see enough of his wife and three sons. Then there's more time to play golf and do some bowling at his own lanes in Clifton, N.J. But now he is like a hunting dog sniffing a quarry. He can't wait for spring training to start.

"I get butterflies in my stomach," he confessed. "I feel like a rookie starting out. I got a lot of things in my mind about running a ball club and I want to try them out."

"Actually, I got to find out if I can manage. I think I can. But it's a challenge. Like anything else. Sure I might be a bad manager. If I find that I am, I'll quit. But I don't intend to be a bad manager."

Yogi will be in the lineup, however, because of injuries.

Wilt Hits 49 As Warriors Win

CINCINNATI, Nov. 13 (AP)—Wilt Chamberlain dumped in 49 points Wednesday night as San Francisco scored a 98-92 National Basketball association victory over Cincinnati in a game that was nip-and-tuck until the Royals went cold in its last five minutes.

The lead changed frequently up to the final period, and Cincinnati led most of the time. But with 4:41 left Chamberlain made a field goal that put the Warriors ahead 91-90 and Cincinnati never caught up.

From the time Wayne Embry connected with a field goal with five minutes remaining until a free throw 21 seconds before the end Cincinnati was scoreless. During that time the Warriors made 11 points.

Oregon State Ready for Game

CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 14 (AP)—The Oregon State university football team leaves Thursday by chartered plane for Los Angeles and Friday night's game with Southern Cal.

Oregon State Coach Tommy Prothro said that end Vern Burke has recovered from a toe injury and will be able to play. Two other regulars—center John O'Billovich and Rick Nelson—won't be in the lineup, however, because of injuries.

Knicks Rally to Beat St. Louis

NEW YORK, Nov. 14 (AP)—The New York Knicks rallied in the second half to beat the St. Louis Hawks 106-102 as the Hawks lost a chance to take over the National Basketball association's Western division lead before 17,217 at Madison Square Garden Wednesday night.

Billy (The Hill) McGill, one of several new Knicks, scored 28 points in leading New York to its first victory over the Hawks in three meetings.

McGill, who got 11 in the second half, brought the Knicks back from a 67-58 deficit in the third period. New York led 75-73 going into the last period and were ahead 100-90 with 4:30 left.

Booted

PROVO, Nov. 14 (AP)—Brigham Young university kicked 12 football players off the team Wednesday, including halfback Phil Brady and fullback Lou Santiago, for "fraternizing" and "inappropriate conduct off the field."

Pressed for details on the infractions and inappropriate conduct, a BYU spokesman would not elaborate.

Four of the 12 dropped were first stringers—Brady, Santiago, center Glenn Shea and tackle Dennis Brewster.

Froehling Has Minor Operation

SYDNEY, Australia, Nov. 14 (AP)—Frank Froehling, Coral Gables, Fla., a member of the U.S. Davis cup team, underwent an operation Wednesday for an abscess on his back.

The operation was termed a minor one, successfully performed, and doctors said the gangling American should be able to return to the courts in a week.

This was encouraging news to Bob Kelleher, U.S. Davis cup captain, who said he expected to have the hard-hitting North-western university student ready for the matches against Australia at Adelaide Dec. 26-28.

Governor Scores TV for Dropping North-South Tilt

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 14 (AP)—Gov. George Wallace blamed Chrysler corporation, the National Broadcasting company and Gillette Wednesday for cancelling the telecast of the Blue-Gray all-star football game. He said the action is "tragic and irresponsible," and said those "who pressured and intimidated the sponsors and the network have, as they always do, hurt all races, especially members of the Negro race with this petty attempt to satisfy their own selfish motives."

No Mascot

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 14 (AP)—Bevo, the 1,700-pound longhorn steer mascot of the University of Texas football team, was kidnapped for the second time in 24 hours Wednesday night.

This time, the steernappers said Bevo will be kept until Thanksgiving day when Texas plays Texas A and M at College Station. Then, said a spokesman for the A and M students who have the steer, Bevo will be returned to Texas.

They added that Bevo would be unharmed.

Liston Spins Fight Tales For Airmen

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 14 (AP)—A jovial Sonny Liston paid a quick visit to one of the nation's missile arsenals Wednesday and told admiring airmen that if his heavyweight championship fight with Cassius Clay "goes past the fifth, I'm going to quit."

Liston entertained more than 100 airmen at Warren air force base by discussing his past troubles and future plans.

How was he going to fight the brass-challenger, one airman asked:

"If he comes to me, I'm going to kill him. If he runs, I'm going to catch him and kill him."

Other Liston comments:

On the Clay fight—"I'm not going to fight him cheap. I'm looking for him to pull a gun. I know it's hard to pull a gun when you're wearing gloves, but I'm looking for him to do it."

On his reported sullenness—"There's lots of things you read about me—that I don't smile. But when I get ready to fight, how can I smile? This guy's trying to kill me."

On his only defeat—"You know how Marly Marshall beat me? I was laughing."

About his name with former champion Floyd Patterson—"I was thinking about that 12½ percent he gave me."

The champ, nattily dressed in a light gray suit and carrying a black walking stick, said his road to the top of boxing's ladder was very rough and "I put the pavement on myself and I made it smooth."

Leafs, Montreal Battle to Draw

MONTREAL, Nov. 14 (AP)—Toronto's Dick Duff whipped a shot at the Montreal goal midway of the third period that caromed off a post and into the net, giving the Leafs a 2-2 tie with the Canadiens in a National Hockey league game Wednesday.

Duff's shot that flipped past Montreal goalie Charley Hodge came at 13:16.

The Canadiens had built a 2-1 lead in the second period, following a scoreless opening session. Bobby Baun put the Leafs out front after 1:25 of the middle period but the Canadiens tied the score on Gordon Berenson's goal at 9:04 and moved ahead when J. C. Tremblay beat goalie Johnny Bower at 10:13.

RUEL DIES

PALO ALTO, Calif., Nov. 14 (AP)—Herold (Muddy) Ruel, former battymale of pitching immortal Walter Johnson, and later manager of the St. Louis Browns, collapsed and died of an apparent heart attack Wednesday night at his home. He was 67.

Pocatello Draws Five Conventions

POCATELLO, Nov. 14 (UP)—All roads lead here this week-end where the University of Idaho-Idaho State university football game has apparently been the drawing card for five major conventions.

The conventions begin today and, strangely, each end at noon Saturday when the Vandal-Bengal convention starts.

More than 200 school system coaches, physical education directors, health and recreation supervisors, meet Friday and Saturday for the annual meeting of the Idaho Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie and Atty. Gen. Allan G. Shepard are speakers at other meetings. Smylie will address the Idaho School Trustees' association Friday evening, and the State Republican Central committee along with Shepard. The committee plans to pick a site for the 1964 republican convention.

The 15th Annual Institute of Government meets at Idaho State university and also meeting is the Idaho Association of Soil Conservation districts.

Bookkeeping Change Eyed For Auditor

BOISE, Nov. 14 (UP)—A new electronic data processing system designed to update Idaho's bookkeeping methods will be installed in the state auditor's office next year.

Auditor Joe R. Williams said it is also hoped the new equipment will lead to development of a central accounting system for state departments and agencies.

"I feel that eventually Idaho will adopt a central accounting system and our installation of new electronic data processing equipment is a necessary first step in that direction," he said. Williams said the new equipment will replace machines installed in 1959 but made obsolete by new developments in the data processing field.

"Our new equipment," he said "will be designed in such a way that it can be added to from time to time as the need develops. We anticipate that it will be five years before any changes need to be made, but when the need arises the changes can be made much more efficiently and economically than at present."

Williams said the equipment will be installed on a rental basis at a cost of $3,420 a month. The installation date is Oct. 1, 1964.

SCHOOLS MUST HELP 26 MILLION YOUNGSTERS WORK THEIR WAY THROUGH THE CHALLENGING DECADE AHEAD.....

EDUCATION EXPERTS predict that 26 million young people will complete some or all of the 16 years normally required for an education through the college level during the decade of the 1960's. These 26 million will enter the job market to join 58 million Americans who will be already employed—Fall, 1963, enrollment in public and private schools and colleges totals an all-time high of 51.5 million students, an increase for the 19th consecutive year. Enrollments in kindergarten through eighth grade are 35 million; secondary schools are at 12.1 million; higher education enrollment is up to 4.4 million. Almost 58 per cent of the population aged 5 to 34 were enrolled in some type of school last fall, Americans aged 25 or over had completed an average of 11.4 grades, compared with 8.4 in 1940. Expenditures for education total an estimated 32 billion dollars for the 1962-63 school year. Data for graph from the U.S. office of education, Washington, D.C.

Prince of Wales Is on Short Side, But Has Lengthy Name

LONDON, Nov. 14 (UP)—The Prince of Wales, heir to the British throne, will be 15 today. He is definitely on the short side, but he has one of the longest names and titles going.

In full it is: His Royal Highness Prince Charles Philip Arthur George, knight of the Garter, Prince of Wales and Earl of Chester, Duke of Cornwall, Duke of Rothesay, Earl of Carrick, Lord of Renfrew, Lord of the Isles, the Great Steward of Scotland.

Schoolmates and family call him Charles.

The closest anyone has come to officially calling him Charles was when his mother, Queen Elizabeth II, announced her first-born would be known as Charles.

To this, Princess Margaret is reported to have quipped: "From now on I suppose I'll be known as Charles's aunt."

The Prince of Wales may be shorter than the average boy of 15, but he is growing fast at the tough Scottish school, Gordonstoun, where he is a sophomore.

Gordonstoun students learn among other things to sail, navigate and rough it. It's no institution for effete young men.

Barnstorming Technique Is Rapped

NEWARK, N.J., Nov. 14 (UP)—Dr. George Gallup, the poll taker, says candidates for president should abandon barnstorming campaigns and make only six major speeches. He proposed that the speeches be broadcast and telecast nationwide with no competing programs allowed.

"It's the least we can expect of the networks and ask of our people," said Gallup in a speech to the New Jersey Taxpayers' association at Newark.

"Present campaigning requires not brains but an iron constitution and does damage to a candidate's health and sanity," Gallup said.

Prince of Wales Is on Short Side, But Has Lengthy Name

LONDON, Nov. 14 (UP)—The Prince of Wales, heir to the British throne, will be 15 today. He is definitely on the short side, but he has one of the longest names and titles going.

In full it is: His Royal Highness Prince Charles Philip Arthur George, knight of the Garter, Prince of Wales and Earl of Chester, Duke of Cornwall, Duke of Rothesay, Earl of Carrick, Lord of Renfrew, Lord of the Isles, the Great Steward of Scotland.

Schoolmates and family call him Charles.

The closest anyone has come to officially calling him Charles was when his mother, Queen Elizabeth II, announced her first-born would be known as Charles.

To this, Princess Margaret is reported to have quipped: "From now on I suppose I'll be known as Charles's aunt."

The Prince of Wales may be shorter than the average boy of 15, but he is growing fast at the tough Scottish school, Gordonstoun, where he is a sophomore.

Gordonstoun students learn among other things to sail, navigate and rough it. It's no institution for effete young men.

fine shot with a gun. Last June, he hit the head lines when he was caught knocking back a cherry brandy in the bar of the Crown hotel at Stornoway on the bleak Scottish island of Lewis. The incident received nationwide attention, and the majority of Britons probably smiled in sneaking approval.

Wherever he goes he is recognized, and people often wave to him. Invariably he waves back.

He is avidly interested in photography and cars. He is too young to qualify for a driving license, but his parents let him drive within the royal grounds at Windsor and Balmora castles.

New Inscription For High Court Chamber Pressed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (UP)—Two Southern congressmen are pressing a bill to put the inscription "In God we trust" above the bench of the supreme court, in spite of Chief Justice Earl Warren's opposition.

Rep. Robert T. Ashmore, D-S.C., author of the bill, told the house Tuesday that Warren had written the architect of the capital that the original decor of the high court's chamber should not be changed, in the interests of "beauty and symmetry."

Rep. Howard W. Smith, D-Va., chairman of the house rules committee, said congress can decide the question and "let it do it."

NEPHEW LEAVES

KING HILL, Nov. 14 (UP)—Mrs. Ernest Sundvall acted as a farewell and Thanksgiving dinner at the home of her niece, Mrs. Harry Fisher, both in honor of their nephew, Cornell Johnson, and family, who is leaving soon for Germany to serve in the U.S. army.

NOW...A GREAT NEW WONDER BREAD!

Gets its delicious old-fashioned flavor from BUTTERMILK

HOW CAN anything so new and different and exciting be so old-fashioned? Easy. The inspiration for new WONDER ENRICHED BREAD Made With Buttermilk came from a century-old Southern recipe.

Every slice of this delicious bread recaptures the delicate flavor and lacy texture of bread from a plantation oven. Its secret is tangy buttermilk and other fine ingredients... blended together and slowly baked with old-fashioned care.

And WONDER ENRICHED BREAD Made With Buttermilk comes in a "Poly-Bag" with special "Lock-In" Tab. It opens quickly and easily... yet closes tight to seal in WONDER's oven-freshness. Ask your grocer for WONDER ENRICHED BREAD Made With Buttermilk. It's an old-fashioned flavor treat your whole family will enjoy.

HOW TO BE SURE YOU GET PERFECT-EATING MEATS EVERY TIME:

1 DEMAND USDA CHOICE GRADE

The grading done by experts licensed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture is the only impartial meat grading. They award USDA CHOICE grade only to meat of top eating quality. This official grade gives dependable quality assurance. ("Grade A" is not a USDA grade. Neither is "USDA Steer Beef," nor the retailer-named beef and packer-named beef being offered in this area. USDA GOOD Beef is a lower grade than USDA Choice.)

All cuts of Safeway Beef and Lamb are graded USDA CHOICE

2 CHECK THE WAY MEAT IS TRIMMED

Many markets leave lots of fat and bone and gristle on their steaks, chops and roasts. Customers buying these cuts pay steak, chop, and roast prices for portions that are tough to eat or cannot be eaten at all. Smart homemakers know that many so-called "meat bargains" are actually very expensive because they have not been properly trimmed.

All Safeway meats are close-trimmed for better value and perfect eating

3 BUY WHERE SATISFACTION IS GUARANTEED

Since most meals are planned around meats, you are entitled to complete satisfaction with every purchase. And certainly you shouldn't have to argue about a refund if any cut fails to please.

If ever you are not pleased with a Safeway meat purchase, just tell us and get all your money back. No need to return the meat
